A pedestrian wants to know how to get to the Town Hall.

Where is the Town Hall?

---

Mister Petermann wants to go to the town hall and asks a pedestrian.

Petermann Can you please tell me where the town hall is?

Heinrich The town hall!?
Oh, yes, that's easy.
Do you see the supermarket over there?

---

Petermann The one with the banners?

Heinrich That's it.
You walk straight up there. On the left there is a small lane.
Carry on along it up to the restaurant Zum Schwan.

---

Mister Petermann listens attentively.

Petermann What's the name of the lane?

Heinrich I haven't got the slightest idea.
Anyway, on the left of the restaurant there is a pedestrian bridge over a small brook.

---

Mister Petermann nods, but he seems to be totally confused.

Petermann Yes...

Heinrich After about two hundred meter you'll see on your left a petrol station.
Don't know which brand.

---

Mister Heinrich explains enthusiastically where he has to walk to.

5

Petermann And then?

Heinrich There you turn right and cross the street.
Walk straight on until the road makes a bend.
But just carry on walking.

Mister Petermann is distressed.

Petermann I am already totally confused.
What about the bend in the road?

Heinrich Not important.
I've got a better idea.
Why don't you just take a taxi!

---

Mister Petermann is relieved.

Petermann That is a great idea!
I would have really gotten lost.

Heinrich Hello! Hello taxi!

---

Mister Heinrich waves to a taxi. It stops.
He smiles deviously.

8

Petermann Thank you so much!
That was very kind of you!
I've taken so much of your time.

Heinrich Don't mention it.
Since your taxi is here, can I perhaps drive
with you?
I also want to go to the town hall!

Topic What is the reaction of mister Petermann to mister Heinrichs cheeky question about driving along in the taxi?
Will he share the taxi or not?
